PERMIT

Section 101.65 (lr) of the Wisconsin Statutes requires municipalities that enforce the Uniform Dwelling Code to provide an owner who applies for a building permit with a statement advising the owner that: If the owner hires a contractor to perform work under the building permit and the contractor is not bonded or insured as required under Section 101.654 (2) (a) the following consequences might occur: a) The owner may be held liable for any bodily injury to or death of others for any damage to the property of others that arises out of the work performed under the building permit of that is caused by any negligence of the contractor that occurs in connection with the work performed under the building permit. b) The owner may not be able to collect from the contractor damages for any loss sustained by the owner because of a violation by the contractor of the one and two family dwelling code or an ordinance enacted under Sub (1) (a) because of any bodily injury to or death of others or damage to the property of others that arises out of the work performed under the building permit or because of any bodily injury to or death of others or damage to the property of others that is caused by any negligence by the contractor that occurs in connection with the work performed under the building permit.

The undersigned agrees to the above-described building in accordance with plans and specifications submitted herewith, and in strict compliance with all the provisions of the Building Code and the Zoning Code of the Village of Little Chute and the Building Code of the State of Wisconsin. The undersigned understands that this permit does not grant any right or privilege to erect or alter any structure, or to use any premises herein described for any purpose or in any manner prohibited by the Zoning Code of the Village of Little Chute.
